

ANN C. (NOROSKI) KORPIEL

A beloved mother and pillar of her Catholic community, Ann Catherine Korpiel, 94, affectionately known to many as "Grandma Ann", peacefully passed away on October 14, 2024, at home with family by her side while faithfully holding her blessed Medjugorje rosary beads.

Ann lit up every room with her charm, exquisite fashion style, and undeniably quick wit. She was the heart and soul of her family, neighborhood, and circles of friends. Ann's listening ear and witty, sage advice made her a confidante to many. She will be dearly missed.

Born on August 8, 1930, in Munhall PA, the youngest child of Stanley and Veronica (Shalkoski) Noroski, Annie was a daddy's girl and very proud of her Polish roots. While working at the Pennsylvania RR as a telephone operator, Ann met a fellow coworker, Walter Korpiel. They fell in love, were married in 1953, and shortly after, they were blessed with five children.

She and Walt raised five independent and faith-filled adults who went on to make her grandmother extraordinaire to 15 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. She was a loving mother and grandmother who spent hours cooking homemade pierogis, golumpki, apple pies (once with cups of salt instead of sugar) and her specialties: chocolate chip cookies and her legendary pizzelles.

Ann was truly happiest when she was spending time with friends and family, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren who were the stars in her eyes. Described by them as funny, sassy, thoughtful and big time Catholic, Grandma Ann showered them with hugs and her presence as she traveled near and far to visit them. She always - ALWAYS - made sure there were fresh homemade cookies in the house for everyone who visited. She even made sure she brought fresh homemade cookies to the Pirate broadcasters before each game she attended, and she never missed a Pirates game on TV. She was a true longtime fan.

But the most important aspect of her life was her Catholic faith and devotion to the Lord. Daily Mass, and then later, daily recitation of the rosary, were a must. Family was important, but everyone knew Christ was number one in her life. She was a true living example of unwavering faith.

Before she passed, Annie made it known that she wanted all to share a laugh and raise a glass (preferably of single malt scotch) in celebration of her journey home.

Ann was preceded in death by her loving husband of 52 years, Walter; and her young grandson, Daniel Harrison. She is survived by children, Thomas Korpiel of McMurray and companion Peggy O'Connell; Susan Regan and husband Steve of Gibsonia; Beth Harrison and husband Fred of Florida; Dr. Michael Korpiel and wife Debbie of California; David Korpiel and wife Tammy of New York; and her beautiful, loving grandchildren, Craig, Kelly, Bobby, Emily, Allison, Annie, Natalie, Luke, Julie, William, Erin, Michael, Ben, Megan and many beloved great-grandchildren. She is also survived by many wonderful nieces, nephews, and cousins.

The Korpiel families are eternally grateful to all the neighbors and friends who watched over and helped Ann during the past 20 years. Their selfless acts of kindness will never be forgotten. A very special thanks to Ann's caregivers and hospice medical team. The family is grateful for their gift of compassion and extraordinary care. Family and friends welcome Friday, October 18, 2024, from 2 - 7:05 p.m.
