

EDMUND EUGENE "ED" LEONETTE

A Pittsburgh native, Ed grew up in the Larimer neighborhood and later moved to Penn Hills with his new family. Throughout his life he was actively involved in his community and church. As an accountant, he worked for several local companies and maintained a private practice until his death.

Ed's wife Rose Marie Leonette preceded him in death. They were married for 53 years. He is survived by his sisters, Theresa Sicuro and Elizabeth Foley; his children and their partners, John Leonette and Bill Yates, Frank and Kellie Leonette, Michelle Leonette and James Stitt; his granddaughter Giavanna Stitt; honorary family member, Amy Hart; and his girlfriend Arlene Eathorne.

A kind, gentle, and generous man, Ed loved his family, his friends, and a good red wine. When you were Ed's friend, you were family. As he'd say, "once you're in, you're in."
