

ROSEMARY P. (SCOTT) MILLER

Age 94, passed peacefully on October 25, 2024. Born on April 4, 1930, in Monessen, PA, the only child of Dr. Charles P. and Florence M. (Wilson) Scott. Rosemary was raised in the Pittsburgh, PA, community of Ingomar. She attended Ingomar Elementary School, West View High School, then graduated from Penn State University with a B.S. in Music Education and played cello in the PSU symphony orchestra. Beloved wife of the late Thomas Edward Miller. Loving mother of eight children, Marybeth (Karen), Arthur (Suzie), Michael (deceased), Paul (Darleen), James (Caroline), Robert (Anally), David (Susan), Carol (Jeff). Proud grandmother of 15 grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Florence Scott; her husband, Thomas Edward Miller; and son, Michael Edward Miller. Rosemary's passion for music carried on throughout her adulthood, including singing with the St. Alexis R.C. Church choir. Rosemary and Thomas moved to Fredonia, NY, in 1972, where she continued to participate in community singing organizations. When they returned to Pittsburgh in the late 1980's, Rosemary sang in the Pittsburgh Concert Chorale for 13 years. A voracious reader and Civil War history enthusiast, Rosemary was always found with a book in her hands. Mass of Christian Burial was held on Wednesday October 30, 2024, at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Dunkirk NY. Internment was followed at Forest Hill Cemetery, Fredonia, NY.
