

JASON J. SHIELDS

Jason passed, suddenly, October 29, 2024. Jason was born on January 16, 1972, in Pittsburgh to Patty Shields and the late Terry Shields. He was a devoted husband to his wife, Heather McKay Shields; and a proud father of three sons, Ty, Beck and Reid. His family was his greatest joy, and he shared his love and wisdom generously with them throughout his life. Jason's words and stories will be forever remembered.

Jason was a storyteller, and some people listened.

Jason is survived by his loving wife, Heather; his three sons, Ty, Beck and Reid; his beloved mother, Patty; his brother, Drew (Jodi); and his sister, Emily (Ben). He was predeceased by his father, Terry; and his youngest brother, Ty. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him, including many extended family members and friends. His loss is felt widely and especially within the South Hills communities of Upper St. Clair, his place of residence, and Mt. Lebanon, his rival place of growth.

Jason was passionate about his three boys and will be remembered for his commitment to their growth and development. His fervor was evident during many of their sporting events where he frequently voiced his opinion.
