

DANNY RAY BUCY

Danny Ray Bucy, age 77, of Jefferson Hills, PA, passed away on November 3, 2024. Born on February 3, 1947, in McKeesport, he was the beloved husband of Karen Bucy; the devoted father of the late Erin Rhea Hoey and Jackson Bucy; the caring grandfather of Courtney; the loved brother of Christie Hyslop; and a warm hearted uncle to his nephews and a niece.

After graduating from high school, Danny honorably served his country in the Air Force for four years during the Vietnam War. Post military service, he dedicated 33 years to the People's Gas Company in Monongahela, where he forged many lifelong friendships and was respected for his steadfast work ethic.

An avid outdoorsman, Danny had a deep passion for fishing, hunting, golfing, and go-kart racing. He also often enjoyed the company of his friends at the Arroas Haymakers and the Elrama Gun Club. He was a lover of life, a man who spoke sparingly but meant every word he said. He also loved to make you laugh and have a good time.

Danny's presence in the lives of his family and friends was a source of quiet strength and joy. His memory will live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate to love him and be loved by him. Danny's passing is a significant loss, but his spirit and the memories he created will endure.
