

LOUIS B. LOUGHREN, ESQ.

The world has lost a great man. Louis B. Loughren, Esquire, 81, of Collier Township, went to Heaven on Saturday, November 2, 2024. Born in Pittsburgh, PA, on September 17, 1943, Lou was the son of the late Lorene (nee Kessler) and Leo J. Loughren, Sr. Lou was a graduate of South Hills Catholic High School, the University of Notre Dame, and Duquesne University School of Law. Upon graduation, he joined the United States Navy Reserve and served with pride as an attorney and judge in the Judge Advocate General's Corps. Following his naval service, Lou entered private legal practice in Pittsburgh, where he worked as a partner in various law firms before founding Loughren, Loughren, and Loughren, P.C. with his sons Matthew and Patrick. Lou's passion and respect for the law were of the highest order, and he especially enjoyed mentoring younger attorneys and watching them succeed. Lou's love for his family and friends was immense. Whenever you were in need, you knew you could call on him for help. You could also count on him for a good (embellished) story or two; he had an irrevocable poetic license. Lou was a proud member of the Academy of Trial Lawyers of Allegheny County, the Allegheny County Bar Association, and the Pennsylvania Association for Justice. He was also a member of The Club at Nevillewood, and Wilderness Country Club, Naples, FL. In addition to his parents, Lou was predeceased by his beloved sister, Elizabeth Weaver (Richard). Lou is survived by his high school sweetheart and loving wife of 57 years, Sandy Brettholle Loughren; sons, Matthew, Patrick (Tonya) and Michael (Lindsay); grandchildren, Jack, Carter and Elizabeth; brothers, Jay (Pati), Jack (Kathy) and Jerry (Mary Ellen); and many nieces and nephews. Family and friends are warmly invited to call at WILLIAM SLATER II FUNERAL SERVICE, 1650 Greentree Road, Scott Twp., 15220, (412-563-2800) on Thursday, November 7, 2024, from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and attend the funeral service on Friday, November 8, 2024, at 10:00 a.m., at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 1066 Washington Road, Mt. Lebanon, PA, 15228. (Everyone please meet at church) In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh Foundation, Attn: Elizabeth Strong Fund, 4401 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15224.
