

JANET IMHOF

Age 82, from Gibsonia, PA. Mother of Mark and Brent Imhof; wife of Robert (Bob) Imhof, predeceased; daughter of Joseph and Ethel Stehle, predeceased. Passed away on November 3, 2024, in Pittsburgh, PA. Born on September 21, 1942. Janet was known for her loving, generous, and caring nature.

Throughout her life, Janet was a beloved member of the Steeplechase Circle community in which she lived and was cherished by many. She graduated from North Hills High School Class of 1960 and participated in their reunion group. She also was part of the Imhof Family Reunion committee which recently celebrated their 101st consecutive annual reunion. She had the most intense love for others with an incredibly forgiving nature. She was a passionate gardener and a dedicated member of the Greybrooke Garden Club. She also was known for her refined eclectic style in clothing, shoes, and jewelry which carried forward into intricate interior design and style in her home. On top of that, she was an estate sale aficionado finding great treasures at a bargain. Her love for travel took her around the world, visiting her sons Mark and Brent Imhof, who resided at times in Europe and South America, respectively.

Janet was a devoted member of the Berkeley Hills Lutheran Church, where she participated actively in various church activities. Her faith and community were central to her life, providing her with much joy and fulfillment.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Janet can be made by cash or check to the Berkeley Hills Lutheran Church, 517 Sangree Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15237, or online at www.bhlc.org. Her life and legacy will continue to influence and inspire those who knew her.
