

MARGUERITE "MIDGE" PETITO

Age 81, of Upper St. Clair, passed away on Monday, November 4, 2024, with family by her side. She is survived by her beloved husband, Donald; her children, Tullio (Lisa), Nicholas (Lori), Vincent (Kimberly), Joseph (Julia), and Maria (William) Conrad; her grandchildren, Alexia and Armand, Nichole, Gina, Anthony and Dominic, Amanda, and Isabella, Margherita and Spencer. She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Anna Mae Samsel. Marguerite was a fashion model in Baltimore, Maryland when she and Donald met. She was the Director of Household Operations in her home, raising five children with her husband Donald. She was an amazing cook and devoted her life to her family. Marguerite's life was full of happiness, laughter and love. Marguerite and Donald enjoyed traveling the world together, as long as they were together that is all that mattered. They had a marriage like no other having just celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Marguerite will be remembered for her classy, radiant beauty both inside and out, her opinionated nature, and most of all, love of family. Marguerite will be dearly missed by all.
