

FLORENCE EVELYN HALL

On October 27, 2024, Florence Evelyn Hall, of Pittsburgh, passed away peacefully. She was born on August 9, 1930, in Ingram, PA. She is survived by her sister, MaryAnne (Lou) Wagenfeld (MI); sister-in-law, Kay Hall (AR); nephew, Jeff (Ruth) Hall of North Hills and thirteen other nieces and nephews whom she held dear to her heart.

"Flo" was active in her church and community, notably as a candle lighter at the First United Presbyterian Church of Crafton Heights and was a member of the Ingram Historical Society. After 82 years living at Scotia Street, Ingram, the family extends appreciation to the staff and residents at Crafton Towers and the staff at the Reformed Presbyterian Home in Pittsburgh for the attention and care given during her times residing there.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, November 16, 2024, at 11:00 a.m. at Allegheny Cemetery in their chapel with Rev. Dave Carver of the First United Presbyterian Church of Crafton Heights officiating. Florence will be laid to rest with her parents, George and Nell Hall.
