

JESSICA MARIE BOFF

Age 34, of West View, originally of Carnegie, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, November 7, 2024.

Jessica was the beloved fiancé of Mike Clark; treasured daughter of Christina (Dave) Sheriff and the late Louis J. Boff, Jr.; loving sister of Christi Lynn (Bob) Cannon, Louis (Ashley) Boff, III, and the late Alyssa Boff; doting aunt of Lily Boff, and Isabella and Bobby Cannon; and cherished granddaughter of Louis J. and Charlaine Boff, Sr., and the late Peter and Isabella Dunlop. Jess is also survived by lifelong best friends Daniel Gaus and Breanna Trecki; her beloved fur babies, Lily and Coco; as well as many loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and numerous friends.

Jessica was a 2008 graduate of Carlynton High School, where she was on the color guard squad. She went on to attend Robert Morris University, and enjoyed a fulfilling career in hospitality and catering. She was the longtime catering manager of CEC, and also was a cook for the Circle Inn in Crafton. Jessica was a fun, loving, high-spirited person with a huge heart. She was always giving back to others, she was particularly involved with the Boys and Girls Club of America, where she coached football, basketball, deck hockey, and golf. Jessica's last act on earth was also one of giving, as she was an organ donor giving many others another chance at life. The loss of Jess is immense. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. The family can take some solace in the knowledge that they will see Jess again in Heaven, as well as knowing that Jess was joyfully welcomed home by her sister Alyssa and her dad Louis.
