

DOROTHY "DOTTIE" BARTH WARREN GAUDIOSO

Dorothy "Dottie" Barth Warren Gaudioso died on Sunday, November 10, 2024, at BridgingLife Dove House.

Born in Abington, PA on October 8, 1945, Dottie was the daughter of the late Dorothy and Frank Danesi.

Dottie married her husband Nick on May 30, 1998, and they enjoyed 26 wonderful years together living in Pittsburgh and Westminster, MD. During that time, they enjoyed cruising the Mediterranean, various trips to the Caribbean and two World Cup soccer matches in France and Boston.

Dottie is survived by her sons, Dr. Daniel Warren (Dr. Cheryl) of Maryland and Matthew Warren (Erica) of Ohio; and the grandchildren she so dearly loved: Emory, Adrienne, and Nathaniel of Maryland, and Gina and Cameron, and bonus grandchildren, Kendle and Kenley of Ohio. She is also survived by her brother, Frank Danesi; nephew, Cody Danesi; and niece, Anastasia Weiss (Marcus) and their boys, all living in Las Vegas. The Gaudioso family was an important part of her life and she loved them all.

Dottie graduated from William Tennent High School in Warminster, PA (class of 1963). She then attended East Stroudsburg State University to become a teacher and later received a masters in Elementary Counseling at Ryder University. She held many teaching and counseling positions throughout Pennsylvania. Each job contributed to her extensive knowledge base, which she used while working with "her kids."

Dottie believed in giving back by volunteering in her community and church wherever she lived. A teacher in life, she will also be a teacher in death as she has donated her body to be used to further medical knowledge.

Dottie's sense of humor, even when dealing with cancer, was an integral part of her personality. She loved the ocean, the beach, rainbows, books, traveling, and making and eating all desserts. Throughout her illness, Dottie was blessed to receive the prayers of many and felt most loved by God and was ready to be welcomed into the arms of Jesus.

Dottie's meaningful life will be commemorated at First Presbyterian Church of Westminster, (65 Washington Rd., Westminster, MD 21157) with a Celebration of Life Service on Saturday, November 23, 2024, at 2 p.m. with a luncheon following the service. The service will be livestreamed on the church website www.fpcwest.org
