Passed away on November 14, 2024, at 86. Predeceased by her husband, Ronald Thomas; daughter, Janice Crain; and grandson, Christian Crain. She is survived by two daughters, Beth Ann (Alan Klotz) of Pittsburgh and Susan (James Beck) of Houston; along with four grandchildren, Austin Crain, Sarah Klotz, Caroline Crain, Jeremy Klotz; and great-grandchild, Cambrie Lindsay.

She was born in Pittsburgh, where she lived for 40 years amidst a large family. She was a 1956 graduate of Scott Township High School. In 1961, she married her high school sweetheart, and was a devoted wife for 54 years during their adventurous marriage. Together they raised three daughters as they lived in Pittsburgh and Baton Rouge. Both she and her husband enjoyed traveling and visiting grandchildren in their golden years.

She was a kind and empathetic mother and grandmother. One of her greatest joys was spending time with her grandchildren. She was proud to be their Nana, cherishing every moment with them. Her support of their dreams, passions and goals was unwavering, a constant source of encouragement.
