Richie retired after working 40 years at the Shuman Center, served as a Sgt. US Army during the Vietnam War. He loved baking his pies, especially pumpkin, working in the garden, going to the casino, and his PA Lottery Scratch Tickets. Richie was a devoted family man. He loved his wife, sons, and daughters-in-law, but his greatest love was for his grandchildren. When you would talk about any of them, it would bring a smile to his face, and a glistening to his eyes.
