

CAROLYN MARIE (LIOTTA) JINDRACEK

Carolyn Marie (Liotta) Jindracek passed away peacefully on November 16, 2024, at the age of 83, in West Caldwell, NJ. Carolyn was born on June 19, 1941, and dedicated much of her life to education, serving as a beloved high school math teacher. She graduated from Duquesne University, which set the foundation for her lifelong passion for teaching and helping others.

Carolyn's generosity and warmth extended beyond the classroom. She was a cherished member of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Roman Catholic Church in Roseland, NJ, where she actively participated in the choir. Her faith was a cornerstone of her life, and she found joy through her many deep friendships and serving others. Her hobbies reflected her zest for life and love for the world around her. Carolyn enjoyed singing with the Concert Chorale of New Jersey, trying new recipes, exercising at the pool, and had season tickets to the symphony. She loved to travel with family and friends, and made many good memories boating on the Jersey shore. Even in leisure, she engaged in activities that brought people together, like studying family genealogy and playing Mah Jongg. Carolyn also greatly enjoyed spending time with her numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and stepgrandchildren.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Jindracek; brothers, Anthony Liotta and John Liotta; and stepgrandson, Trey Martin. She is survived by her sisters, Joan (William) Keyser and Arlene (Robert) Grados; sisters-in-law, Tina Liotta and Janet Liotta; stepchildren, Charlie Jindracek, Lynn (John) Van Breemen, Susie Pagano, and Beth (Dave) LaMora; and stepgrandchildren, Christie (Robert) Knolmayer, Amy Force, Sarra (Michael) Latendorf, Laura (Nikolaos) Gavrillis, Dustin (Rachel) Jindracek, and Josh Kasmarcik.
