

Poem In Titles Of "The Planets"

Jenny Lee was a choco-holic And the "Mars" bar was her tempting fate

In fact at a weekend stay at the hospital

It was fed to her intra- "Venus" -ly straight

And there was no other
"Earth"-ly bar

That could ever in the world compare

Yes she was over the "Moon" with this delicacy That to her was so unique and rare

Even her precious dog "Pluto"
Had a go at that addicting confection

But unfortunately the "Mercury" inside it Had caused him a terrible infection
