

SENIOR FINANCIAL ANALYST

Advanced Robotics for Manufacturing d/b/a ARM Institute (Pittsburgh, PA) to be responsible for driving biz value thru effective design, testing, implementation, & review of complex manual & automated financial & accounting systems & processes, including forecasting tools, budgeting models, NetSuite & Salesforce. Specific job duties include: coordinating proposal budgeting cycle w/ CFO & Controller & assisting w/ compliance & reporting reqs; supporting & enhancing biz models, forecasting, & budgeting tools to monitor key metrics, optimizing financial & organizational performance while conforming to GAAP; maintaining Salesforce pipeline; reviewing internal controls & security of automated accounting applications to ensure conformity to federal government auditing standards & cost accounting standards; collaborating w/ Controller to gather input & feedback concerning data models, forecasting systems, & accounting needs; & apply understanding of GAAP & generally accepted auditing standards, & methods of systems analysis & principles, design, & procedural methods used in modeling & forecasting. Bachelor's in Accounting or Finance. CPA or equivalent. Resumes to HR@arminstitute.org.