

SARA "TOOTSIE" MYERS WINOKUR

Sara Myers Winokur, better known her entire life as "Toosie," was born in Pittsburgh, on July 29, 1926, to the late Simon Myers and Ethel Wasbutsky, and died on November 27, 2024, in Sarasota, FL. She was predeceased by her brother, Louis Myers. She is survived by the loves of her life, her sons, Jeff (Martha) and Greg (Amy); her four grandchildren, Emily, Daniel, Zack, and Katie; and four great-grandchildren.

Toosie was beloved by all who knew her. People had fun wherever she went. She was known for her warmth, as well as her ready laugh. She grew up and raised a family in Squirrel Hill. She later moved to Shadyside, where she lived for the next 20+ years. In the mid-1970s she began to spend several months each year on Siesta Key in Sarasota, FL, where she eventually moved permanently.

Toosie made many devoted friends in both Pittsburgh and Sarasota over her long life. Although most, if not all, of her contemporaries are gone, she also made friends with her friends' children, who usually referred to her as their "Aunt Toose."

Her family would like to thank all staff members of the Memory Care Unit at Plymouth Harbour, in Sarasota. A very special debt of gratitude is extended to Ingrid Fahrenheim, who cared for Toosie for the final four or so years of her life. Toosie loved Ingrid, and so do we!
