

LINDSEY KATHERINE MASSON

It is with profound sadness, that we announce the passing of Lindsey Katherine Masson, beloved wife, sister, daughter, and aunt, who passed away on November 26, 2024, at the age of 40, succumbing to her battle with longterm illness. Lindsey's life, though too brief, was rich with love and devotion to her family.

Born to Wayne and Jackie (Rump) Zanardelli; Lindsey was the cherished youngest sibling to Lauren Foster (Graham), Jennifer Lear (Bryan), and Michael Zanardelli. Growing up in Bethel Park, Lindsey was known for her bright spirit and remarkable individuality. As her family had always lovingly mused, she marched to the beat of her own drum.

She graduated from Bethel Park High School, in 2002, before pursuing her passion for painting at West Virginia University, where she earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, in 2006. Her dedication to education continued, as she obtained her secondary education teaching certification for art instruction from the University of North Carolina, in Charlotte, in 2008.

In Hilton Head, South Carolina, her favorite place, Lindsey married the love of her life, Zachary Masson. Together, they shared nearly two decades of unwavering partnership. She was fortunate to share a close relationship with Zac's family; most especially her loving father-in-law, Ken Masson; and brother-in-law, Caleb Masson (Allie). She adored her nieces and nephew, Sydney and Emma Lear, Sunny Foster, Violet Betters, and Lucy and Sam Masson, showering them with love and affection.

Lindsey's life was enriched by the simple joys of music, books, movies, and time spent with her beloved family. Above all, she shared a deep and abiding bond with her mother, Jackie, whose love and support meant everything to her.

Lindsey's kind heart, unshakeable loyalty, and unique approach to the world touched the lives of all who knew her. Lindsey's memory will be cherished, and her legacy will endure in the hearts of her family and friends.

A celebration of life to honor Lindsey's memory will be held on Sunday, December 15, 2024, from 1-3 pm, at Crosswinds Clubhouse, located at 1000 Crosswinds Drive, in McMurray, PA. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the National Scleroderma Foundation in Lindsey's memory.

Rest peacefully, sweet Lindsey.

You will be deeply missed and loved forever.
