

ERICALLEN KENNETH GRANDAS

It is with deep sadness the family of Ericallen Kenneth Grandas announces his passing on November 30, 2024. Eric was a loving husband and dedicated father. He leaves behind his beautiful wife Kayla, and their two precious young children. Eric loved his wife and kids more than anything in the world. Eric was loved so deeply by Kayla and all of Kayla's family. Eric's love for his family was infinite and without boundaries. He never missed an opportunity to make Kayla and her family proud, taking on major home projects and focused on improving his family's life. He was an impressive son-in-law to Kayla's parents, Kelly and Jeff, and inspiring brother-in-law to Kayla's 5 siblings: Jimmy, Olivia, Angela, Jeffrey, and Jack.

Eric was a man of God, guided faithfully by his Mom and Dad, Stacy and Frank, his grandmothers Eileen "Nunny" Grandas and Marianne "Grammy" Talluto. They will always pray for his peace in heaven. Eric's siblings, Emma, Frankie, Zack, Anna, and Kaleb loved him dearly. Aunts and uncles Mark, his Godfather, and Laura Grandas, Dave and Karrina Basset, Chris and Corinne McConnaughy and Godmother Nicole Talluto pray for serenity. Eric was cherished by numerous cousins, great aunts, great uncles, and Grandfather Joe. He is preceded in death by Grandfather Frank Grandas. Eric was born January 13, 1994, in Sumter, SC and that started his over-the-top dedication to Gamecock football. Eric spent his formative years in Hooversville, PA before meeting and marrying Kayla, settling in Upper St Clair, PA. His friends numbered many and they will always hold him dear to their hearts. He found a career at CEC and the respect of his coworkers. Eric was an avid hunter and golfer, always looking for that eight point or the rare birdie. Eric worked hard at everything; by improving himself in the gym, reading, expanding his knowledge through research and constantly learning something new. A man's man, never saying no to a challenge.
