Gwen grew up in the Coney Island section of Brooklyn, NY, and was a 1952 graduate of Abraham Lincoln High School, and a 1956 graduate of Hunter College. She taught English in the New York City Schools before moving to Pittsburgh.

She started the Young Women's Event Series at the Ladies Hospital Aid Society at Montefiore, and was a case worker at Big Brothers/Sisters. She was the Vice-President of the Center for Human Development and Vice-President of the Rodef Shalom Congregation Sisterhood. She was a Counselor for the Allegheny Intermediate Unit at Wilkinsburg High School, retiring in 2000.

After earning an M.Ed. from the Pitt School of Education, she later actively served on its Alumni Board. She was the unofficial mother of Scope and Scalpel, Pitt Med's original musical production, having been married to one of the Founding Members. Her wisdom was often sought by people of all ages and she always knew what to do to help people who were struggling for an answer.

In keeping with her expressed wishes, Graveside Service and Interment will be held on Wednesday, December 11, 2024, at 1 PM, at West View Cemetery of Rodef Shalom Congregation.
