

ELVIRA L. PROLOGO

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Elvira L. Prologo, affectionately known as "Viry," who left this world peacefully on Tuesday, December 10, 2024, at the age of 86, surrounded by love. Born on September 21, 1938, in Curtisville, Pennsylvania, Elvira was the daughter of the late John and Lois Irvine. Elvira's life was a testament to faith, kindness, and an enduring commitment to those she cherished.

Elvira was the devoted wife of Rocco C. Prologo, for 67 years with whom she shared a beautiful journey of love and family. Together, they raised three children: Rocco, Jr. (Karen), Renée, and Richard (Shirley), who were the light of her life. Her legacy continues through her six beloved grandchildren: Ryan, Eric, Kira, Christina, Erica, and Julia, each of whom she adored and celebrated with pride. She is also survived by her dear sister, Gladys, and joins her siblings Donna and John, Jr. in eternal peace.

Elvira's remarkable life was shaped by her intellect, determination, and devotion to others. She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Human Resource Management, later applying her talents as the Office Manager at the Pittsburgh Supercomputing Center, where she was admired for her professionalism and unwavering work ethic.

A deeply spiritual woman, Elvira found joy and inspiration in Bible study and shared her love of learning with those around her. She also had a passion for travel, delighting in new experiences and the beauty of the world.

Above all, Elvira will be remembered for her selflessness and boundless love. She had an extraordinary gift for making everyone feel valued and cared for, always putting the needs of others before her own. Her presence was a constant source of comfort, strength, and warmth—a true reflection of her beautiful soul.

Elvira's family kindly requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Neurofibromatosis Clinics Association (NFCA), PO Box 14185, Pittsburgh, PA 15239 or NFPittsburgh.org in her memory, as a testament to her generous and compassionate spirit.
