

LOIS MARGARET LAUX

Of Wexford, formerly of Ross Twp. On the wings of joyful Irish Angels, Lois Margaret Laux left this world on Monday, December 9, 2024, to join her family in the Heavenly Emerald Isles.

Born July 29, 1929 (a true Leo if there ever was one), she was a proud graduate of St. Benedict Academy. Always the mischievous one, she delighted in telling stories of sneaking smokes behind the nuns' back and rolling her uniform skirt above her knees when they weren't looking. She excelled in business courses and was an executive secretary for several downtown business firms, before becoming the banquet manager at the Sheraton Motor Inn North. Lois was a bride's best friend, she made sure each detail was in place before every wedding, confidently assuring nervous couples it would be their most memorable day. Politics? Well that was Lois's favorite subject. In her earlier years, she ran for and won the Republican Committee Woman post in Bellevue. She was a voracious reader (a frequent patron at the Mars library) and loved to engage anyone in a lively discussion on political candidates or current events. Amazingly, she knew every obscure fact about candidates and policy issues so if you thought you could win a debate point from her-you never did!

Lois was predeceased by her husband of 60 years, William B. Laux; parents, Michael and Laura Hurrie; and sisters, Labetta Glancy and Mary Avanel Zener. She was the loving mother of four children, Linda Lindenbaum (Jorge), William V. Laux, Michael F. Laux (deceased) and Daniel G. Laux (Shelli). She leaves behind five grandchildren, Lindsay Austin (Phil), Lauren Lindenbaum, Michael Lindenbaum (Kayla), Claire Laux, Laura Laux; and five great-grandchildren, Ivy Grace and Will Austin and Ethan, Olivia and Ava Lindenbaum.

The Laux family wishes to extend their deep gratitude to her dedicated caregivers, Beth and Alexis of Bridges Hospice and to the loving and caring staff at Concordia of Wexford.

As per Mom's request, there will be no viewing.
