And many nieces and nephews.

Sharon was born in Cheyenne, WY, where she met David, while he was in the Air Force. The two fell in love and married on August 25, 1962 and they would go on to have six children together in an eight year span. In 1967, they moved to Pittsburgh with their then four kids on a cross country trip in their blue 64 1/2 Mustang. Sharon and David spent the rest of their lives together in Pittsburgh, until they both passed away, peacefully in their home, just hours apart, as they couldn't bear to be separated.

Sharon worked part-time at various points throughout her life as a waitress at McSorley's, in addition to working at a nursing home and volunteering as a hospice caregiver. But her greatest role was as a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend, who dedicated her life to her family. She was a selfless woman who believed no ask was too great when it came to her family and friends and she loved spending quality time with them. She spent many days with her grandchildren at the movies, out to lunch and at the Pittsburgh Zoo or Phipp's Conservatory, among other places. Her sense of humor never failed to light up a room, and she loved to make people smile.

A world traveler, Sharon loved seeing new places and learning new things and she lived to pass her knowledge on to others, especially her grandchildren. She frequently spent time with her friends, going to lunch and yard sales or galavanting around the city and her hobbies included reading, cooking and baking, sewing, crafting and decorating. She especially loved her dogs, collecting tea cups and china and all music, but her favorites were Elvis, Jackie Wilson and Fats Domino.

A quote from Harry Potter, a favorite movie series of both Sharon and her grandchildren is, "The ones who love us never really leave us, you can always find them in here".

A special thank you to all of the family, friends, nurses and caregivers from the Allegheny Health Network Healthcare at Home, who took care of our parents during their time with home hospice care.

Memorial services for Sharon and David will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks donations be made to The Alzheimer's Association (www.act.alz.org) or to The American Cancer Society (www.donate.cancer.org)
