

GERALD "GERRY" JOHN INNOCENTI

Gerald "Gerry" John Innocenti, of Cave Creek, Arizona, passed away at the age of 79, on December 10, 2024, after battling Parkinson's for 18 years, and a recent stroke. Gerry was born on February 17, 1945, in Pittsburgh, PA, the son of Joseph and Edith (Barsotti) Innocenti.

Gerry grew up in Pittsburgh and graduated from South Hills Catholic High School in 1963 and from the University of Pittsburgh in 1969 with a degree in electrical engineering. After graduating he worked for Westinghouse in Pittsburgh and, in 1981 moved to Phoenix, Arizona, to work at Honeywell on computer software for power projects and development engineering.

He enjoyed many sports including racquetball and boating, waterskiing and houseboat vacations on Lake Powell. Gerry met his wife Sandy in 1993 and they married in 1999. Gerry and Sandy settled in Cave Creek where they enjoyed a beautiful life for 32 years full of adventures and loving family. They even visited Italy several times and had the opportunity to develop a deeper love of all things Italian. Gerry adored his four grandsons and enjoyed spending time with his son, Brett.

Gerry also had a passion for sports cars and racing. He was a member of the Arizona Corvette Racing Club.

Gerry is survived by his wife, Sandy; daughter-in-law, Jennifer (Brett); stepdaughter, Alannah George (Shawn); grandchildren, James, Max, Dominick (Brett), Rees (Alannah); and sister, Sandra Hoffman (Robert). Gerry was preceded in death by his son, Brett; and his father and mother.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Parkinson Disease Association.
