Happy Birthday Rob My Beloved Son

My world is so different without you. I miss your smile, our talks, and of course, watching our favorite TV shows. You made Dad and I so proud. Your courage and strength through difficult times was an inspiration to all.

Rob, my Guardian Angel, watch over me. Friends and family are taking care of me. I know you and Dad are together celebrating your 45th Birthday having a Budweiser.

Love Forever,
Mom
