

DONALD JOHN DAVIS, JR.

Donald John Davis, Jr., 86, went home to the Lord on December 18, 2024, with his daughter, Dawn Delarosa, by his side. He was preceded in death by his wife of 48 years, Louise Ann Davis; sons, Donald "Donnie" John Davis II and Brian James Davis; a sister, Norma Jean "Janie" Askins (Davis); and his parents, Donald John Davis, Sr. and Clara Davis. He is survived, and will be greatly missed, by daughters, Dawn

Joanna Delarosa (Ramon), Misty Dawn Wicklund, Sandra Lee Powell (Kevin); adopted son, Michael Charles Wicklund Davis; and stepdaughters, Kimberly Ann Pollard (Ed) and Karen Ann Wohar (Steve); along with ten grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Prior to retiring to Florida, Donald resided in Natrona Heights, PA, where he was a chemical lab technician by trade, but referred to himself, with a smile, as "a jack of all trades, and a master of none." He will be remembered for fixing and making whatever he could to help family and friends.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb