

ROBERT J. KLINE

Robert J. Kline, 56, of West Deer, died peacefully on December 24, 2024. Born on November 15, 1968, in Pittsburgh, he was the son of the late Joseph M. and Elizabeth "Betts" Kline. He was a graduate of Deer Lakes High School, Class of 1986. Rob went on to work for Shop N Save and then as a manager of several Wendy's franchises in the Pittsburgh area.

He closely followed, and enthusiastically cheered for, the Steelers, Penguins, and Pitt and Penn State football teams.

Surviving are his sister, Cathy Walker (Bob); his brothers, Mark Kline (Valerie), Gregory "Chip" Kline, Rich Kline (Brittney); and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. Besides his parents, Rob was predeceased by his brother, Jamie.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Tranquility of Copley for the loving care he received there at the end of his life.

He was a bright light in the lives of those who were blessed to know him. Rob's humor brought smiles and laughter to all he met. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. Donations may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital or a charity of one's choice.
