

GREGORY ALAN STANGA

Gregory Alan Stanga, age 65, of Robinson Township, passed away unexpectedly on January 5, 2025. Born on January 26, 1959, he was the beloved son of the late Leonard and Shirley Stanga.

Greg was a devoted family man, a loving husband to his wife, Cindy Ruprecht-Stanga; and a proud father to Gregory M. (Ashley) Stanga, Marissa (Daniel Nestler) Stanga, and Jordan (Shane Coyner) Stanga. He found immeasurable joy in being a grandfather to Payton Marasco and Lukas Stanga, who brought endless smiles to his face. Greg was a cherished brother to Leonard (Karen) Stanga, Dennis Stanga, Vicki Stanga, and Scott (Wendy) Stanga. He also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and countless friends, who were touched by his kindness and generosity.

A man of deep integrity and dedication, Greg's greatest joy was being with his family. He spent countless hours coaching his children's sports teams-softball and baseball in Robinson Township-instilling in them a love for sports and the values of teamwork and hard work. His passion for coaching extended beyond the game, as he also served as a mentor to many of his children's friends, always there to lend a hand and offer wisdom. His role as a father and mentor was central to his life, and he was a man his children and their friends admired and respected deeply. One of Greg's greatest joys was watching Pittsburgh Steelers games with his son. This shared passion for the Steelers brought them closer, creating memories that meant the world to them. After the birth of his son, they were excited to carry on this tradition as a family. Together with his son, Greg, and grandson, Lukas, the three of them would gather to watch the games. They had hoped to continue this tradition for many years to come, a symbol of the strong bond they shared and their deep love for each other.

Greg was known for his willingness to help others, his enthusiasm for learning, and his vast knowledge of a little bit of everything. He was a wonderful teacher, and always took time to help his children with their homework, ensuring they were well-prepared and confident. Whether it was his love for classic rock, Earth, Wind & Fire, or Bob Marley, or his enjoyment of fitness and staying active, Greg embraced life with enthusiasm.

A proud Italian, Greg's family traditions were important to him. Sundays meant pasta, Fridays meant pizza, and no holiday was complete without his favorite ravioli at Christmas and Easter. He was a self-proclaimed food critic, known for giving unsolicited feedback. Greg loved the beach, cherished the time spent with his grandchildren, and was a true "girl dad," protective and supportive of his children. He was a perfectionist, always striving for the best in himself and others, and he found joy in bringing out the best in everyone around him.

Greg's loyalty to his family and his unwavering commitment to his loved ones made him a pillar in their lives. His legacy of love, generosity, and dedication will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
