

NAJET C. KHURI

Age 80, Pittsburgh. Born into this world November 5, 1944. Born into eternal life January 5, 2025. Welcomed into Heaven by parents, John and Christine (Moses) Khuri; husband, Albert Field; sisters, Muna Romah and Amber Harris; brother, Johnny Khuri; brothers-in-law, Jim Erkel and Alex Romah; nephew, David Romah; and beloved friend, Barbara Siyufy. Deeply, sadly missed by sisters, Christiann Erkel, Deborah Khuri; brother,

Michael (Rae) Khuri; brother-in-law, Loren (Debbie) Harris; sister-in-law, Lisa (Mark) Khuri Hull; dearest friend, Michael Siyufy; and all the nieces and nephews who were the joy of her heart and the love of her life. Najet was a member of St. George Orthodox Church and found immense fulfillment working as a nurse in hospitals, private duty, and hospice. Friends will be received Thursday, 1-5 p.m., at WARCHOL FUNERAL HOME, 3060 Washington Pike, Bridgeville. A Trisagion service will be held Thursday at 4:30 p.m. at the funeral home. Additional visitation Friday morning form 10 a.m. - 10:30 a.m., at the funeral home. Funeral liturgy will be held Friday, 11 a.m., at St. George Antiochian Church, Bridgeville. Najet prayed the sinner's prayer, inviting Jesus into her heart. Her name was written in the Book of Life, making her a child of God, with the blessed assurance of everlasting life. Because she placed her trust in Christ, she is now absent from the body and present with the Lord. She stands now in the presence of her loving Saviour, who said, "God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son hath not life... whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved... I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"
