

BEVERLY LORRAINE (PAGE) HARRIS

08/19/37-01/06/25

Born on August 19, 1937 in Pittsburgh, PA, she graduated from Perry High School. Beverly worked for the Department of Public Welfare as a Clerk and Grubb Ellis (formerly known as Oliver Realty/Axiom Real Estate) as a receptionist retiring in 2012. She was very active in the Quaker Valley (QV) School District during her children's attendance and was a deacon and an elder at Sewickley Presbyterian Church (SPC). Of note, she was known to many as Ma Harris and referred to herself as the Old Broad from Sewickley.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert James Harris, Sr.; and parents, Lawrence and Allene Page. She is survived by her daughter, Lorraine Adell Lubbert; grandson, Hunter Patrick Lubbert; and son, Robert James Harris, Jr. (Lisa Osmundsen); stepchildren, Alex Pihl, Lauren (Max) Caldwell; son, James; and daughter, Lucy. She is also survived by her sister, Gloria A. Barber; nephews, Dr. Michael A. Harris (Diane) and Robert L. Barber; great-nephew, Erik Sanderlin. In addition, special friends of 40 years, Dr. Robert and Sarah Mantica. Honorary grandchildren, Ben (Megan) Mantica; daughter, Madeline; and sons, Charlie and Ted, Jackie (Jeffrey) Stabile; son, Zachary and Abby (Jessie) Bailey; sons, Max and Samuel.

In addition, a special thanks to Tina Thomas, Congregational Care Team at Sewickley Presbyterian Church (SPC), the AHN Hospice Team and the staff at AHN Wexford, The Villa St. Joseph in Baden and Harmony Hills Healthcare in Wexford.

A Memorial service will be held at Sewickley Presbyterian Church (SPC) on Saturday, February 1, at 11:00 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial contributions be made to Sewickley Presbyterian Church (SPC) Mission Fund or Music Ministry at 414 Grant Street, Sewickley, PA 15143 (sewickleypresby.org).

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb