

STANLEY GEORGE "SONNY" WILCZAK

Age 89, entered into his eternal life surrounded by his loving family on January 11, 2025.

Stan was born to his late parents, Anna and Stanley Wilczak, in the home of his grandmother in The Bottoms section of McKees Rocks on February 28, 1935.

"Sonny" was a nickname given to Stan by his mother at a young age and used by his entire family throughout his life.

Stan graduated from Stowe High School, McKees Rocks, in 1953. Shortly after graduation, he joined the United States Army and served in Korea during the final phases of the conflict.

After his enlistment, he started his career as a dispatcher, initially with Jones Motor Company, and in 1966, he began employment with WJ Beitler Company in Pittsburgh until his retirement in 1995.

Stan married the love of his life, the late Maryann Malanosky Wilczak, on October 17, 1959. This marriage produced four surviving children, Stanley (Ginger), Dave (Lydia), Marybeth (Kevin) Molyneaux, and Anne Marie (RJ) Weaver. Also surviving are grandchildren, Grace, Stanley, Daniel, and Joseph Wilczak, and our angel, Elizabeth Wilczak.

Stanley was preceded in death, additionally, by a sister, Dorothy Deltondo; a brother, Donald Wilczak; in-laws, Ann and Walter Malanosky; and his step-father, Michael Popko. Also, sisters-in-law, Barbara Malanosky and Sharon Wilczak. Brothers-in-law, Charles, George and Edward Malanosky, and Robert Jones. Also, his niece, Diana Malanosky Schwab; and his nephew, Danny Wilczak.

Surviving Stan are his sisters-in-law, Bernadette Jones, Wilma and Margaret Malanosky; and brother-in-law, Donald Deltondo; plus numerous nieces and nephews.

In his younger days, Stan was an avid hunter and enjoyed following the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates. As he grew older, he enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren and their activities.

Although he traveled with the military, family vacations and to the homes of his children, he always enjoyed life on McKees Rocks Road where Stan and Maryann made a home for their family and friends for 63 years.

A special thanks is directed to the staff at Apple Blossom Senior Living Facility and the Begg family for their continued support of Stan.
