

HOWARD " HOWDY" McGREGOR

Devoted husband of Barbara (Eiler-McFadden) McGregor and was previously married to Janet (Traynor) McGregor, who preceded him in death. He was a proud father to Dan (Michelle) McGregor, Mike (Darlene) McGregor, Kathy (Ken) Wagner, Sharon (Bill Bianco) McGregor, Kelly (Jt) Chiodi and Tracy (Chris) Dewit; and devoted stepfather to Colleen (Mike) Boyd, Kelly McFadden and Beth McFadden.

Howard's legacy extends to his cherished 24 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren (with one on the way), who brought him immense joy.

Born in McKees Rocks, Howard spent the majority of his life in Kennedy Township, where he resided for over 60 years. He built a successful career as an Account Manager with Schwebel Baking Company, retiring in 2000, after many years of dedicated service.

Above all else, Howard loved his family deeply and treasured the time he spent with them. He was also an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan, sharing his love of any game with the many families who could walk in his door unannounced on a Sunday to enjoy it with him.

Howard's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
