

NANCY WADDELL SHUCK

Died peacefully, in Easton, Maryland, on January 18, 2025, with her daughters by her side. Born September 8, 1929, Nancy was the oldest of three children, born to Grace Bond and William Francis Waddell. Nancy attended Chatham Women's College, where her impressive creative talents were put to good use designing, sewing and painting costumes and sets for college productions. After school, she met and married Albert "Mike" Porter Hill, Jr. and moved to Fox Chapel, PA to raise her three girls, Tory Enerson, now of Columbia, MD, Dria Boyer, now of Morris, CT and Abby Vogel, now of East Hampton, NY. Summers were spent beachcombing on her beloved Cape Cod. Nancy was a prominent member of the Pittsburgh chapter of the Junior League and in her 30s obtained her real estate license. Following her divorce, she became an active real estate agent in the Pittsburgh area. At 46, Nancy met and married Donald Lockhart Shuck, expanding her family to include Don Jr., now of New York City and Sally Simpson of Stratton, VT. The family relocated to Sewickley, PA, where Nancy immersed herself in the local community, joining the garden club, becoming an avid golfer and with three friends opening a knitting shop "Yarns Unlimited." Upon Don's retirement, they moved briefly to Pinehurst, NC, finally settling in Easton in 2004. They both fell in love with all aspects of the Eastern Shore. Nancy pursued her life-long passion of watercolor painting, joining the Art Academy and continued her work with The Garden Club of America. Throughout their 48-year marriage, Don and Nancy traveled extensively all over the world. She is survived by her sister, Barbara Burgin of Exter, NH; her five children, 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. A Celebration of her Life will be held in the Spring, her favorite time of year. In lieu of flowers, Nancy requested trees be planted in her memory at www.shop.arborday.org/commemorative For online condolences and updated service information, please visit:
