After graduating from McKeesport Vocational High School, Class of 1955, Don began working for Thorofare Markets, a local grocer, where he was manager of produce. After 15 years in retail, Don fulfilled his life-long dream of a career in law enforcement. He joined the North Huntingdon Township Police Department as a patrolman, and later, working with youth as a Juvenile Officer, advancing to the rank of Sergeant. Don was instrumental in implementing the Field Training Program used by the department. He retired from the force with 30 years of service. After retirement from the police department, he was elected Commissioner of Ward 7 of North Huntingdon Township and served for 12 years. Don was a member of the Allegheny Valley Lodge 39, Fraternal Order of Police, New Kensington Division, the Penn's Woods Civic Association and Irwin First United Methodist Church. Don was an honest, hard-working man. In addition to always having a full-time job, he also held second and third jobs as a means of providing for his family. He worked in construction, as a cab driver and funeral attendant and hearse driver, just to name a few. He was also a jack-of-all trades as evidenced by his countless renovations to the family home, fixing cars and putzin' around the house. He enjoyed deer hunting and the outdoors and he'd tell you he never bagged the "big one." After retirement Don took great pleasure in attending the activities of his grandchildren, spending time at the football field, track and gymnasium. He also enjoyed watching sports, especially his Pittsburgh teams the Steelers, Penguins and Pirates. Relatives and friends of Don will be received from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m., Friday, at the WILLIAM SNYDER FUNERAL HOME, 521 Main Street, Irwin, where a Funeral service will be held, at 11 a.m., Saturday, with Pastor Alex Ielase of First Evangelical Free Church, McKeesport, officiating.
