

EILEEN LOIS YOEST HADDEN

Age 98, of Port St. John, FL, formerly of Bloomfield/Shaler, on Thursday, January 23, 2025. Beloved wife of the late Raymond Yoest and Harry Hadden; mother of Von Yoest, Linda (Bill) Verbanets, and Gary (Joan) Yoest; grandmother of Josh (Kate Summers) Verbanets, Nathan (Krista Long) Verbanets, and Corey Yoest; proud great-grandmother of Alice and Anya; also survived by dear friend, Rita Yoest. Eileen was the former fashion director of Bon Marche's in Canton, OH, and was a talented fashion artist for Horne's Department Store in the Pittsburgh Press. Eileen was a member of the East Coast Orchid Society, and worked avidly in her beloved Florida gardens. She was proud to win "yard of the month" several times in her local community. Eileen was a remarkably creative and talented person. She used her talents to bring smiles to her family, especially her great-granddaughters, through little doodles and sketches. Her mind never rested, even into her final days. An avid reader, a skilled artist, a thoughtful designer, Eileen's legacy is one of vibrancy and love. Services private and entrusted to SOXMAN FUNERAL HOMES, LTD. Interment in St. Augustine Cemetery. To honor Eileen's memory and in recognition for the loving care provided to her, memorial contributions may be made to Presbyterian Senior Care-Westminster Place, 1415 Hulton Road, Oakmont, PA 15139, to aid in the care of others or visit,

<https://www.givetosrcare.org/donate-now/>

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb