She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Philip J. Smith; her parents, Thomas J. and Margaret Madigan Corbett; and her sister, Margaret M. "Peg" Corbett. Julie was born and raised in Pittsburgh's Oakland Neighborhood, and was a proud Pittsburgher and avid Steelers fan. Her skill and dedication to the sport earned her numerous trophies over the years, reflecting both her talent and competitive spirit. She was also a dedicated public servant, having worked for a local Judge in the Mays Landing court system. In the mid 1990s Julie returned to Pittsburgh to care for her aging parents, where she continued her career in the Allegheny County Orphan's Court system until her retirement.

Family was at the heart of Julie's life, she is survived by her sisters, Mary Corbett Post and Sally Corbett Douglas (Dale); her cherished nephew, Thomas J. Post; and her beloved niece, Margaret Vandergracht (James). Julie was a generous and devoted aunt, creating treasured memories with her nephew and niece, especially during their Saturday night bowling outings, followed by hot chocolate at the Somers Point Diner. Julie also had a deep love for cooking and delighted in sharing meals with loved ones. Her kindness, generosity, and vibrant spirit will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.
