

JOAN BADZGON

Joan Badzgon, age 93, of Ross Township, North Hills, Pittsburgh, passed away peacefully at her home on Tuesday, February 11, 2025. She was the beloved wife of Elmer Badzgon, having celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on March 29. Together, they traveled the globe on cruise ships winning at casinos in Las Vegas and Atlantic City and cheering the Steelers to victory. She was the loving mother of five children: Diane Schad, R.C. Staab, Christine Solanina, Eric Staab and Nancy Staab who preceded her in death. The light of her later years with Elmer was their granddaughters, Mauresa Christine Solanina and Olivia Solanina, as well as Mauresa's husband, Duc Cao, and their great-grandchildren Jasper, Bennett and Owen. She was preceded in death by her sister, Lois O'Rourke.

Joan was the daughter of Cyril and Anna Sprung and grew on the South Side of Pittsburgh. They were known as the "Sprungson Spring Street". She graduated from St. Francis Academy Mt. Providence in 1948. She married Robert "Bob" Staab and moved to the North Hills. After her divorce, she met Elmer and began a new life in Berkeley Heights in Ross Township. For many years, she owned the Unusual and Unique Gift Shop, next to Hallmark Cleaners.

There will be a viewing from 4-8 p.m. on Thursday, February 13, 2025, at DEVLIN FUNERAL HOME, 806 Perry Highway, North Hills. Full, obituary go to:
