

JEAN CASTO HAMM

Passed away peacefully, on Monday, February 10, 2025, at the age of 73. Jeanie, as she was known to all, was born July 31, 1951 in Wheeling, West Virginia. Parents, Leonard Alvin and Beulah Mae Wilson Casto, raised Jeanie; her brothers, James and John; and sister, Linda. She was a graduate of Triadelphia High School in Wheeling, where she proudly served as editor of the school newspaper. She later attended West Virginia University. Jeanie was the devoted wife to Herk Hamm for 52 years; and was the greatest mother to Harry Charles Hamm, III ("Chas") and Erin Elizabeth Thomas. Jeanie served her clients dutifully in the property and casualty as well as risk management insurance industry for nearly four decades. Her work ethic and drive were second to none. Jeanie never met a stranger, in any encounter. She loved spending time with Herk and adored her moments with and the opportunity to watch the growth and accomplishments of grandchildren, Hailey, Nicholas, Andrew, Ella and Lucy. She was looking forward to the anticipated graduation of eldest granddaughter, Hailey from W&J College in the Spring. Mom is survived by husband, Herk Hamm; children, Erin Elizabeth (and Michael) Thomas and Chas Hamm; sister, Linda Casto Armstrong; numerous brothers and sisters-in-law, cousins, nieces and nephews, who all meant so much to her. Visitation will begin at 11:00, Friday, February 14, 2025, at FREYVOGEL- SLATER FUNERAL DIRECTORS, (412-835-1860), 112 Fort Couch Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15241, with a 1:00 p.m., funeral Mass at St. Thomas More Church, Resurrection Parish. Family is asked to join for a grave side service at noon, Saturday, February 15, 2025, at Stone Church Cemetery in Elm Grove, Wheeling. In lieu of flowers, contributions to Furkid Rescue (furkidrescue.org) or to the American Heart Association are greatly appreciated.
