

JUDI L. WAGGETT

Age 77, of South Park, passed away with family by her side, on February 11, 2025.

She was the daughter of the late Angie and Archie Dolfi.

Loving wife of 57 years of Renny Waggett; beloved mother of Angela Waggett and Noelle Waggett; dear sister of Karen Kutzer; sister-in-law of Carol (Kevin) Rothhaar and Francie (Matt) Connolly; aunt of Andrea Slaven, Alan Spisak and Bruce Rothhaar; also survived by four legged granddogs, Pepper and Cinnamon.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Norma (surviving: Andy) Spisak.

Judi was a lover of books and an avid reader, who found joy in every page, no matter the genre. Her love for literature was matched only by her talent for knitting, a craft she pursued with the same dedication and patience she brought to all aspects of her life.

As an interior designer, Judi had a remarkable eye for detail and a deep understanding of how spaces could shape the experiences of those who inhabited them. Her work transformed countless homes and businesses, leaving behind environments that were not only aesthetically stunning but also warm and inviting.

In addition to her professional achievements, Judi was a beloved community member. She played a pivotal role in the founding of the South Park Library, a place that continues to be a cherished resource for people of all ages. Her vision and tireless dedication helped lay the foundation for a space that fosters a love of reading and learning for generations to come.

She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

All services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The South Park Library, <https://www.southparklibrary.org> or The South Hills Pet Rescue <https://www.southhillspetrescue.org>

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb