

LaDORNA ISABELLE (LIVINGSTONE) STEPHENS

Age 95, passed away February 12, 2025. She was born in London, Ontario, Canada, on Tuesday, September 17, 1929, the daughter of James Charles and Alice LaDorna (Johnston) Livingstone. She was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years, James Durston Stephens in 1999; and her brother, Robert James Livingstone.

She lived in London, Ontario until 1935, when the family relocated to Sault Ste. Marie. In 1936, the family moved to Mile 163-1/2 on the Algoma Railway. Her father managed the depot for Abitibi Pulp & Paper Company, which shipped logs from "the bush" to Sault Ste Marie to be processed into pulp wood. She and her brother, Bob, walked 1-1/2 miles along the railroad tracks to reach the school in Hawk Junction, although they did not have to go to school if the temperature was below negative 35F. The family returned to the "Soo" at their father's death in 1940 and lived with their maternal grandparents, Emma Bertha and Robert Johnston for three years.

LaDorna graduated from Sault Collegiate and studied office duties at Sault Business College. In 1946 her mother remarried Ray Berkely Scarrow and the family moved to Marathon, Ontario. LaDorna worked for the Dominion Bank for a year and then worked for Marathon Paper Mill in the office of the Traffic Manager. In 1948, she met Jim Stephens, who was sent to Marathon to learn the pulp and paper business for Babcock & Wilcox. In 1949, they married and moved to West Orange, NJ. Five of their children were born there. In 1959, they moved to their beloved farm in Wadsworth, Ohio, where their last child was born in 1963. In 1966, they moved to Rochester, Michigan and in 1974, they moved to Murrysville, PA.

Wherever she lived, she performed volunteer work for the local hospitals, churches and schools and was a long-time member of the Murrysville Woman's Club.

One final move in 2011 brought her to Redstone Presbyterian Senior Care in Murrysville.

She lived a long and wonderful life but she knew the best was yet to come.
