

JAMES RUCH

James Ruch, age 84, of Baldwin Borough, passed away peacefully in his sleep on February 12, 2025. Born on September 1, 1940, he was the son of the late Claude and Edna Ruch.

Beloved husband of the late Roberta Ruch, with whom he shared 57 years with; loving father of Jamie (the late Mike) McKeever, Ron Ruch, Shawn Ruch, and Jeff (Jul) Ruch; granddad to Madelyn, Michael, and Ryan

McKeever, and Gideon and Corbin Ruch.

James spent the majority of his career at U.S. Steel, where he was highly regarded as a system designer who wrote the program for making steel for the company. In his free time, James had a passion for his guns as both a collector and avid shooter. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family and dogs, especially for the holidays.

Private arrangements were entrusted to PITTSBURGH CREMATION AND FUNERAL CARE.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb