

ANNETTE LOIS (NOLISH) GIOVENGO

Annette Lois (Nolish) Giovengo passed away on February 15, 2025, at the age of 63, following a five-year battle with multiple Myeloma. She was the daughter of the late Anthony J. Giovengo (1923-1973) and Lois Horak Giovengo (1925-2005).

She is survived by her husband, Kevin Nolish; son, Andrew Nolish; lifelong friend, Tammy (John) Hoffman; and sister-in-law, Shawn (Steve) Wallack.

Annette earned Ph.D., M.S., and B.A. degrees from Carnegie Mellon University and played violin in multiple campus ensembles. She worked as a business consultant for the steel industry, a senior administrator in higher education, an independent writer, and as a board governance consultant for higher education institutions and non-profit organizations.

A lifelong resident of Ross Township, Annette served from 2013-2021 on the North Hills School District Board of Education. She was President of the North Hills Instrumental Parents Association from 2011-2015.

She enjoyed elaborately decorating her home for every holiday, reading, cross-stitching, and the companionship of dachshunds throughout her lifetime.

Arrangements by SHELLHAAS FUNERAL HOME, 388 Center Avenue, 15229, in West View, PA.

Viewing on Thursday, February 20, 2025, and Friday, February 21, 2025, 4 pm-8 pm. A service will be held at 11 am, on February 22, 2025.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial contributions be made to the North Hills Instrumental Parents Association, or a charity of your choosing.
