

MARGARET ANN SARVER

Margaret Ann Sarver, born on August 21, 1935, passed away peacefully on February 22, 2025. A lifelong resident of Pittsburgh, Margie was a devoted wife to her late husband, Bob Sarver. In later years, she found companionship with Jack Hallstein, who was instrumental in her care, along with Lisa Neugebauer. Margie is survived by her dear aunt, Doris Ogg, who was like a sister to her, as well as many cherished Ogg and DeVault cousins.

Margie's life was a testament to vitality; she remained incredibly active and energetic well into her 80s. Her youthful spirit shone through her love for long walks and physical activity, making it hard to believe her age. This vibrant energy was a defining trait.

A renowned dog obedience trainer, Margie operated an in-home boarding kennel, groomed dogs, and hand selected puppies for people worldwide. Her dedication and passion for dogs extended to her Ross Township community, with thousands enrolling in her dog classes over the years.

Margie's relationship with God was also deeply important to her. She attended Mass regularly at St. Sebastian Church and was an active member of her church community.

An avid traveler, Margie explored places like Alaska and Yosemite National Park, and cherished her annual trips to Florida with friends.

She was a loving presence, a second mother to many, and a cherished grandmother figure. Margie will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Friends received Tuesday, 3 - 7 pm at SIMONS FUNERAL HOME, INC., 7720 Perry Highway.

Mass of Christian Burial on Wednesday, 10:00 am, at St. Sebastian Catholic Church, 311 Siebert Road.
