

GEORGE EDWARD "ED" ROEHRE, JR.

He was everything...Beloved husband, adored father, grandfather, son, brother, and cousin, loyal soldier and teammate, and cherished friend. At the age of 88, George Edward Roehre, Jr., a man of quiet strength and heart of gold left this earth February 26, 2025, surrounded by family, love and a little bit of Dewars.

Ed was born to the late George Edward Roehre Sr. and Genevieve Frances Roehre (Beckman) in Baltimore, Maryland.

Ed graduated from Mount Saint Joseph's high school in Baltimore, Maryland in 1955, and was inducted into the Gaels' athletic hall of fame in 1998. In college he played quarterback for the Villanova Wildcats. He graduated from Villanova University in 1961.

Ed and his family were long-time parishioners of St. Alexis Church in Wexford, Pennsylvania. He attended mass almost every day at St. Alphonsus Church in Wexford.

His presence was magnetic, his laugh authentic, his charm subtle but lasting, and above all, he was inherently kind. To know him was to love him.

Ed is survived by his wife of 63 years, Linda (McCarthy); his daughters, Margy, Lisa, and Susan (Crispin May); his sister, Lynda Lowry; his grandchildren, Maura Romano, Shelby Roehre (Peter Wills), George Edward May, and Molly May; his great-granddaughter, Liliith Roehre-Wills.
