She loved animals. She had many pets in her lifetime, including her dogs, Pepper, Charlie, and her current beloved dog, Penny; and her cats, Taffy and Sophie; along with several other family pets that she loved so dearly.

Kara also adored music, especially Pearl Jam, Tracy Chapman, Prince, The Grateful Dead, Lettuce, Widespread Panic, The Allman Brothers, Neil Young, and so many others. She was an avid concert-goer and traveled to lots of different places to see her favorite artists perform. Kara loved writing, reading and poetry. She was an avid reader and an excellent writer. She was religious, as a faithful Catholic, and also enjoyed astrology. She was very spiritual.

Most of all, Kara loved her family. She was selfless, compassionate, resilient, and so very loving. She was an extraordinary mother, sibling, wife, and daughter. She is survived by her parents, Cherie and David Andersen; children, Jacob David Michaelson and Meadow Rose Michaelson; and their father, Chad Michaelson; siblings, Paige (Chris) Pingitore and Patrick (Becky) Andersen; nieces and nephews, Brittany, Nate, Rachel, and Brooke. She is so very loved and known for her rare sympathy for others. We all love her and will miss her so much. Until we see you again, Kara.
