

BARBARA DOMINOWSKI

Barbara Dominowski, aged 75, of McMurray, PA, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, March 5, 2025, with her loving family by her side. She was the daughter of the late Frederick and Matilda (Lenort) Vetter.

Barbara is survived by her loving husband of 53 years, James Dominowski; her devoted son Andrew Dominowski (Tiffany) of Chandler Arizona and daughter Allison Dominowski of Middletown Delaware; her cherished granddaughters, Aubrey and Lyla; and her sisters, Darleen Wiedenheft (the late John) and the late Marcia Kalka (Jerry); and her brother, Ronald Vetter (Donna).

She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and aunt. Her tenacity in approaching all of life's challenges was indicative of her strength. Barbara graduated with a BA degree in Education from Duquesne University and was a teacher at St. Cyril of Alexandria, Northside until changing careers and working at the USPS for 32 years in Human Resources until retirement. She supported her children in every activity and endeavor at every stage throughout their life. She had a wide range of interests and talents, including gardening, cooking, sewing, refinishing antique furniture, and watching the birds. She was an avid reader and always had at least 3 books going at one time. Barbara was an animal lover and enjoyed caring for her own cats, as well as spoiling her childrens dogs and cats. She also enjoyed spending time with and spoiling her granddaughters teaching them everything she knew. No service or arrangements will be made at Barbara's wishes. Her legacy will live on through her children and granddaughters and she will be dearly missed.
