May 7, 1990 - March 24, 1998

In Loving Memory

It's hard to believe that it has been twenty-seven years, How we've cried so many tears.

Christopher, you know that you live within our hearts, Only it still hurts because we are apart.

How we miss your boyish smile.

Our time together was to last a while.

After all this time that you have been away,

We still talk to you each and every day.

Never a day goes by that we do not think of you,

Not a day goes by that we do not say "I love you."

No matter how many more years shall pass,

Our love for you will forever last.

With all our love,
Daddy, Mommy, Rachel and Mark
