

JOHN G. PODKRAJAC

John Podkrajac of Petersburg, VA, and Pittsburgh, PA, went to his heavenly home on November 12, 2024. John was the beloved father of Michael Johnson (Meghan, wife). He was also the cherished brother of Cheryl Ferrara (partner, Mike) and Joanne Wamsley (husband, Bill). He was predeceased by his mother, Theresa Fair; father, Walter Podkrajac; brother, Wally Podkrajac; and stepbrother, Robert Fair. His stepfather, Larry Fair passed after John in January 2025. John is also survived by numerous cousins, great-nieces and nephews.

John worked in the construction industry for most of his career, retiring from Peri Formworks in 2019. John loved socializing with his friends and family and being outdoors. His passions were fishing, golfing, boating and just being out on the water. He also enjoyed history, especially of Pennsylvania and the area around Pittsburgh where he grew up. John wrote poetry and shared his inspirational poems with his friends and family. John was a family man and loved his family with his whole heart! He will be forever missed!

John will be interred at Evergreen Cemetery in Gettysburg next to his mother on Saturday, March 29, 2025, after his stepfather's service at noon. The family will be receiving friends at the family home after the graveside service. Please join us with your memories to share.
