

NANCY JANE HILL

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved sister, aunt, and friend, Nancy Jane Hill, on March 23, 2025. Nancy was a beacon of love and light in our lives. Her infectious laughter, outspoken personality, and wonderful wit will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Born on September 27 to Bertha and William C. Hill in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Nancy began her career as a personal assistant to Dr. Cyril Wecht. She later served as the executive secretary to the administrator at Divine Providence Hospital in Pittsburgh.

After retiring, Nancy moved to New Wilmington, Pennsylvania to help her sister, Carol Short, run the Short Stop Inn Restaurant. She later joined her niece, Susan, as the lovable hostess of The Tavern on the Square.

Nancy was also active in her community, serving as president of the Wilmington Township Civic for two years and was a proud member of New Life Baptist Church.

She loved to dance and sing and was often the life of the party, delighting her family and friends with her joy and energy.

Nancy is survived by her beloved sister, Carol A. Short, and many adoring nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, William C. and Bertha Hill; her brother, William J. Hill; and her sister, Marilyn L. Myrla.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made to the Hillman Cancer Center.

Per Nancy's wishes, no funeral will be held, but a celebration of her life will be planned at a future date. Arrangements by SMITH FUNERAL HOME of New Wilmington, PA.
