

KATHLEEN MAE BARBOUR

The epitome of "My grace is sufficient for thee," Kathleen was born on February 15, 1957, was born again into Christ Jesus, on June 28, 1966 and finally returned home to be with her Lord Jesus Christ, on Tuesday, March 25, 2025.

Beloved wife of John Barbour; Kathleen was the devoted and loving mother of Philip Tucker, Stephen Tucker (Nicole) and John Tucker (Katie); and loved her husband John's sons, Aaron Barbour, Sean Barbour (Jenna) and Bradley Barbour (Chloe). Kathleen cherished her six Tucker grandchildren, Ava, Jack, Ellie, Noah, Paisley and Lucy; and her five Barbour grandchildren, Campbell, Brett, Lilah, Brooke and Bodie. Kathleen loved and was loved by her sisters, Christine Blaney (deceased) and husband, Denny, Karen Slonaker and husband, Gary and Melinda Cosentino and her husband, Joe. Kathleen adored her nieces and nephews, Rachel (Michael), Daniel (Kim), Leanne (Ryan), Rebecca (Marty), Marianne (Michael), Susan (Kyle), Anthony (Lauren), Glen (Allison), Joe Jr. (Megan); and her great-nieces and nephews. Kathleen also enjoyed many family memories with her numerous cousins.

Kathleen was born in Wilksburg by her Godly and loving parents, Frank Metzger (deceased) and Marion Metzger. Her parents' devotion to God and their spiritual guidance led Kathleen to being born again into Christ Jesus at nine years old while attending Vacation Bible School.

Kathleen graduated from the University of Pittsburgh School of Dental Hygiene in 1977 and worked as a dental hygienist for five and a half years, before becoming a happy homemaker for her family. Kathleen and Timothy Tucker (Mary Beth) were married in 1978 and resided in the east suburbs of Pittsburgh. Kathleen's life was centered around caring for her family, her close friends and her various church ministries in service to Jesus.
